News

- The children have had a great day today dressing up and joining in with the spooky walk put together by our PTFA. We raised £412.00 which will go towards fantastic activities for the children in the lead up to Christmas.
- Congratulations to Samuel P for passing his music exam.
- Please do not sent nuts or food containing nuts into school as we have children will nut allergies. Thank you for your support
- We say a fond farewell to Mrs Nagy, Mr Green and Mrs Taylor from our board of governors. We thank you all for your service to the school.
- Congratulations to Miss Cahill who is expecting her first baby in March, we cannot wait for our new addition to the St John Vianney family
- Have a safe and happy half term!
